

Evaluation of Applicants

The Admissions Committee considers evidence of sound scholarship, community involvement, leadership, and communication skills. Click the links below for examples of the evidence we look for in each category.

Sound
Scholarship

Community
Involvement

Leadership

Communication
Ability

Sound Scholarship

---

- Overall preprofessional performance
- Performance in required science and math courses
- Consistency of performance
- Depth and breadth of courses

Community Involvement

---

- Participation in activities that benefit the community
- Significant involvement in college clubs or groups

Leadership

---

- Selection to positions of leadership by faculty or peers
- Positions held within an organization
- Service as a resident or teaching assistant

Communication Ability

---

- Performance in speech course
- Well-written personal statement
- Extracurricular activities and work experience
- Interview